Catholic Schools Week

This past week, Catholic schools across the country celebrated Catholic Schools Week. This is an annual celebration of who we are as a Catholic school community. It is important to realize how fortunate we are to even have the opportunity to choose Catholic education in our community. There are many Catholic communities across the country that do not have that privilege.

We, as a school community, are grateful to the administrators, faculty, and staff for their dedication and service to Catholic education in Owensboro, Kentucky.

We, as administrators, faculty, and staff, are thankful for the parents, grandparents, and parish communities for choosing to make the sacrifice to support the Catholic education of each of our 1340 students currently enrolled K-12.

We, as the Owensboro Catholic Community, sincerely appreciate the efforts of Bishop Medley, our Episcopal Vicar Fr. Pat Reynolds, Diocesan Superintendent Jim Mattingly, Diocesan Assistant Superintendent Anne Flaherty, the Pastoral Office, and the OCS Education Council to support and safeguard Catholic education in Owensboro, Kentucky.

Through continued collaboration and a unified effort, Catholic education will thrive for generations to come in Owensboro, Kentucky!
