

Social Studies posting - OCMS

Owensboro Catholic Schools is seeking applicants for a full-time Social Studies teacher at Owensboro Catholic Middle School. The ideal candidate would be a practicing Catholic in good standing with the Church who has a Social Studies Education degree and has a passion for teaching adolescents. More specific job functions and a calendar of events are available on request.

Essential Job Functions

- Provide daily social studies instruction for students in grades 7 and 8
- Use best practices to provide effective instruction and positive, consistent classroom management.
- Communicate with students, parents, and other stakeholders in a professional and positive manner
- Function as a cooperative, productive team member at OCMS
- Support and uphold the philosophy and mission of the Catholic Church and the Owensboro Catholic School System.
- Chair/Co-chair an extra-curricular club or student organization

Requirements and qualifications:

Have a passion for teaching adolescents.

Social Studies/History Education degree or teaching experience with the ability to pass the middle school Social Studies subject exam.

Able to multitask, prioritize, and manage time efficiently.

Must be self-motivated and self-directed with precise attention to detail.

Goal-oriented, organized team player with positive attitude.

Practicing Catholic preferred, but not required.

The successful candidate must pass criminal background check and complete safe environment training for the Diocese of Owensboro before employment can be granted.

Owensboro Catholic Schools is an equal opportunity employer that provides a wide range of benefits. All interested applicants may submit a resume and cover letter brooke.hattabaugh@owensborocatholic.org or write Brooke Hattabaugh, Owensboro Catholic Schools Human Resources, 1524 W Parrish Ave, Owensboro, KY 42301. Resumes will be accepted until filled.